

Secondary English / History Teacher

Required for September 2022

Application deadline: Friday 29th April 2022

Situated in the beautiful Fontainebleau area, 45 minutes from Paris, the Anglophone Section is a highly successful and popular International Section providing a dynamic and bicultural curriculum through the medium of English within the French State Education system.

We are seeking a dynamic and experienced English and / or History specialist to deliver our Language and Literature curriculum to students aged 11 to 18 years. This is an exciting opportunity to join our current staff of 13 teachers in this unique international school environment.

The successful candidate will be a native English-speaking graduate who possesses a relevant teaching qualification from an English-speaking country. Prior teaching experience of the subject matter (Key stages 3, 4 and post-16) in an anglophone country is essential. A working knowledge of French would be an advantage, as would experience and a desire to undertake extra-curricular activities.

All applications should include a curriculum vitae with supporting letter and should be addressed to:

The Director
Anglophone Section Fontainebleau
head@anglosection.com
www.anglosection.com